Public Works

PETER BERGQUIST - DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC WORKS

The new wastewater project that has been underway since early 2024 is moving along well without any major budget concerns.

Members of Council and City representatives were able to tour the facility on September 9 to see how things are progressing and to learn more about the operations.

Marketing & Development

PENNY LEE - MARKETING & DEVELOPMENT MANAGER

In September, the Marketing & Development team will be dedicating our efforts to the upcoming municipal elections.

Community & Leisure Services

MICHAEL ULRIKSEN - DIRECTOR OF COMMUNITY & LEISURE SERVICES

Work continues on the Jacob Leicht Memorial Outdoor Rink and Courts. Once completed the multi-use space will provide recreation all-year round.

Cultural Services

JENNIFER FITZPATRICK - DIRECTOR OF CULTURAL SERVICES

The Water Tower is now closed for the season but private rentals are still being offered.

A new exhibit called Ace Academy from the Canadian Aviation and Space Museum is now on display at the museum. Using digital motion-sensing technology, you can pilot a WW1 era plane.

There will be a Walk for Reconciliation held on Sept. 29 at Civic Park at 2 p.m. The walk is in observance of the National Day for Truth and Reconciliation on Sept. 30, in partnership with the Westminster Affirm Team. For further information on this event and others happening for Culture Days, please visit humboldtmuseum.ca for all the details.
