PUBLIC ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

Councillor McInnis acknowledged the Humboldt Downtown BID for the Moonlight Madness and Santa Claus Parade events they hosted on November 21.

From the board members, the volunteers, and the attendees, it was great to see the community embrace the event, and to see the downtown come alive ahead of the holiday season. (photo credit: Skunk Media)

Councillor McInnis congratulated Mark Doepker on the sale of Universal Sports. Mark has been in business for 41 years, and this Saturday marks his last official day. She also extended her congratulations to the new owner, Josh, and wish them all the best as they move forward.

Councillor McInnis also congratulated two new locally founded businesses in the community. Rae Clothing was opened by Carli Classen and the Sweet Spot was opened by Britt Failler.

Councillor Muench acknowledged the former council members and mayor for their time served on council and for their dedication to the City over the last four years.

Councillor Muench thanked the new council for putting their names forward for council, for being elected and accepting their new roles with the City of Humboldt.

Councillor Rowe thanked Public Works for their snow-clearing efforts in the city over the past week.
