Updates from City Administration

Planning

MIKE KWASNICA - DIRECTOR OF PROTECTIVE SERVICES

The Planning Branch continues to be busy providing advice on development standards for several proposed new commercial uses that are currently at the negotiation stage and proposed for 2023. City Administration will report details on any new developments once permits are at the approved stage.

Cultural Services

JENNIFER FITZPATRICK - DIRECTOR OF CULTURAL SERVICES

The Humboldt & District Gallery is pleased to announce the opening of two exhibits: Calling by Hanna Yokozawa Farquharson and Micro & Macro of the Boreal Forest by Greg Allen and Jeff Meldrum.

Calling features the beautifully crafted and thoughtfully meditative fibre works of Saskatchewan artist Hanna Yokozawa Farquharson.

Micro & Macro of the Boreal Forest features a mixture of paintings and photography set in the wilderness of Northern Saskatchewan.

Marketing & Development

PENNY LEE - MARKETING & DEVELOPMENT MANAGER

The department has been working with a local media company since August 2021 to produce a series of 7 promotional videos about Humboldt. Filming of these videos have been conducted to capture Humboldt and region during the height of each season to highlight the year-round beauty of the City. This project took a year and a half to complete and wrapped up in April 2023 with our series finale, "Be Part of It All in the Heart of It All". Leisure Services

MICHAEL ULRIKSEN - DIRECTOR OF COMMUNITY AND LEISURE SERVICES

The annual Summer Sizzler is returning again this year but with Canada Day! The Sizzler and Canada Day will be celebrated on the same weekend with the Midway coming back and the parade happening the morning of Canada Day. The parade theme is Canada Day, so it fits right in. More information about Parade registration to come.

The Summer Sizzler is back for another year, along with Canada Day!
